Sketch Helps Trace Identity Of Victim

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Mrs. Joseph Kalom was watching television in Kalamazoo, Mich., when she saw an artist's sketch of an unidentified young woman whose mutilated body was found near Ann Arbor Monday. She recognized the likeness of her daughter Alice, sixth victim in a series of brutal murders which has baffled police who believe they are looking for one "real sick man."

Tuesday night, the Kaloms drove a hundred miles to Ann Arbor and after viewing the body, confirmed that their 21-year-old daughter was the latest victim in a 22-month string of grisly murders of young women in the Ann Arbor area.

Just Graduated
Miss Kalom, a recent graduate of the University of Michigan school of architecture and design who stayed on to take a few courses this summer, was last seen alive by her boyfriend early Saturday morning. She had not been reported missing. Police believe she was killed sometime Sunday night.

"I raised a good girl," said Kalom, a pharmacist, after identifying the body.

"I was afraid," he said. "I called her every time there was one of the murders. She said, 'I'm careful; I don't associate with strangers.'"

Since Aug. 7, 1967, the bodies of six women ranging in age from 13 to 23 years old have been found on the fringes of Ann Arbor and nearby Ypsilanti. All had been shot, strangled or stabbed. All but one was partially nude and had been sexually molested.

Real Psycho
Both parents were reported in shock after identifying the body. The couple was driven back to their Kalamazoo home by Michigan State Police.

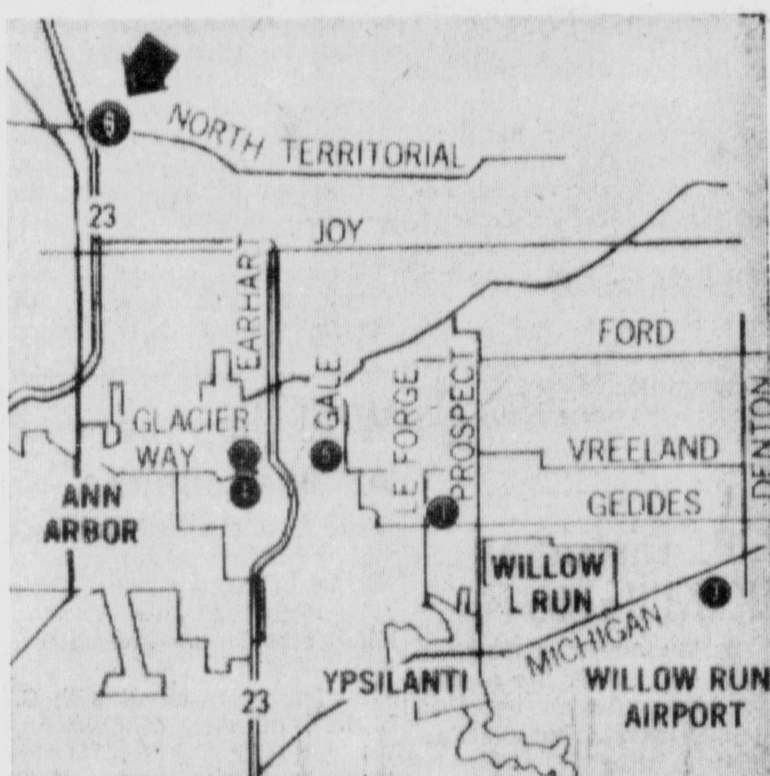

Authorities investigating the murders now believe all six deaths are the work of a single assailant. "There are similarities linking all the murders," said Douglas Harvey, sheriff of Washtenaw County.

"It has got to be a real psycho who would shoot a girl, stab her several times and then stab her in the heart," the sheriff continued. "It's got to be a real sick man. It's somebody who knows the area. It has to be."

But, Harvey said, his men, assisted by State Police, have no good leads on the case. "The investigation begins now," he said today.

Miss Kalom's body was found on an abandoned farm about seven miles north of Ann Arbor. She had been stabbed in the heart and neck, slashed repeatedly and shot in the head. Police said she was killed about four miles away and her body taken to the old farm and left to be discovered.

A sheriff's deputy Tuesday afternoon found a pair of shoes and buttons from Miss Kalom's coat on the presumed death scene. Both buttons and shoes were speckled with blood.

Soviet Troops Invade China

TOKYO (AP) — Red China charged today that Soviet troops, tanks and armored cars had swept into Sinkiang province, carrying out "wanton provocations against three Chinese herdsmen who were grazing cattle." A woman herder was reported killed and a herdsman kidnapped.

The official New China News Agency said the Chinese Foreign Ministry had handed a note to the Soviet Embassy in Peking charging that "dozens" of Soviet troops crossed the border into Yumin County, in northwest Sinkiang, Tuesday night.

When Chinese frontier guards approached the soldiers, the note said, "the Soviet troops, truculently refusing to talk reason, were the first to open fire."

Plane Search In Fifth Day

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont. (AP)—The air search for a two-passenger plane missing since June 3 north of Sault Ste. Marie went into its fifth day Tuesday.

Canadian and American pilots are trying to find a plane piloted by Henry Kollowitz, and passenger Robert Cottingham, both of Toledo, Ohio. They were lost in a storm about 50 miles north of the Soo.

The search, which has already covered more than 29,000 square miles, will continue until the end of the week, a spokesman said.

Cambodia, U. S. Resume Relations

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP)—The United States and Cambodia will resume diplomatic relations at the lower level of charges d'affaires, Prince Norodom Sihanouk told a news conference today.

The prince, Cambodia's chief of state, also announced that he has broken diplomatic relations with West Germany and West German aid to Cambodia will be stopped.

Urban Areas To Get $60 Million In Senate Bill

LANSING (AP) — Legislative controversy over a bill allocating $100 million recreation bonds appeared nearing an end today after the Senate gave tentative approval to a measure calling for $60 million to be spent in urban areas.

The Senate meets at 10 a.m. The Senate today was expected to pass with little debate a measure calling for $40 million in outdoor projects and $60 million to be spent in urban areas.

The Senate today was expected to pass with little debate a measure calling for $40 million in outdoor projects and $60 million to be spent in urban areas. Legislative leaders expected the House to stamp its approval to the measure hammered out by Senate Minority Leader Sander Levin, D-Berkeley.

Bogged Down
The bill bogged down in the legislative chambers after Gov. William Milliken recommended that $53 million be spent in urban areas.

Sportsmen charged that Milliken had broken faith with the voters who approved the bond issue with the understanding that $70 million would be spent on outdoor projects and $30 million in urban areas.

The measure before the Senate is divided into a 70-30 formula that some charge is merely a shroud for a 40-60 split.

Under terms of the Senate bill, $30 million would be granted to local communities. The remaining $70 million would be allocated to the Department of Natural Resources.

However, the bill calls for the Department to allocate $30 million to state regions on a per capita basis. Nearly all the funds would be awarded to population centers in southern Michigan.

Project
The $40 million for state projects would be broken down like this:

- $27 million for state parks.
- $6 million for fisheries projects.
- $5 million for wildlife projects.
- $2 million for forest recreation projects.

All projects would have to be approved by the Legislature.

A similar House version calls for only $20 million of the $70 million to be spent in urban areas.

"This bill certainly violates the intent of the people who voted on it," charged Sen. Robert J. Huber, R-Troy.

Kids' Errand Is 10 Mile Hike

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Mrs. Myrna Price of suburban Woodson Terrace handed her son Eddie and neighbor Julie Dunaney, a pair of 10-year-olds, two containers of discarded clothing at 11 a.m. Tuesday and told them to drop the items in a Goodwill Industries collection box on a nearby corner.

Eddie and Julie couldn't find that box so they kept walking until they found one on a St. Louis corner 10 miles from home along Interstate 70.

Police found the youngsters in a service station about 7 p.m., tired, thirsty and lost, but their mission complete.

"They walked every step of the way," said still-shaken Mrs. Price.

House Approval Expected On School Aid Measure

LANSING (AP) — Prompted funds for school districts absorbing students and debts of the bankrupt Nankin Mills School District.

Sen. Charles Zollar, R-Benton Harbor, a member of the conference committee, opposed the measure on grounds that it would be fiscally irresponsible.

Gov. William Milliken made a surprise appearance Tuesday night and watched the roll call vote from the Senate balcony. He had been working closely with legislators this week to seek quick passage.

"I applaud action of the Senate in accepting the conference report on the 1969-70 school aid bill, and I urge similar action in the House at the earliest possible moment," Milliken said.

Inadequate
Milliken's influence, criticized as inadequate by legislators in recent weeks, was expected to be felt as well when the lower chamber took up bills proposing allocation of the $100 million recreation bond.

In other action the House adopted bills that would reduce the number of probate judges from 102 to 80 and allow them a maximum salary of $32,000, declare the Liquor Control Commission to be an autonomous body within the Commerce Department and set a minimum price for retail sale of beer at 22 per cent above distributing cost.

Revision of the state's probate court system follows earlier House action on the county circuit court system. Judges of both systems could be paid as much as $32,000 under a combination of state and county salary.

The state's share for both would be set at not more than $20,000 and could be reduced if the local portion would raise the total above $32,000.

Income Surtax Faces 1st Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's proposed extension of the income surtax faces its first major congressional test in an atmosphere of deep political division and mounting official alarm over inflation.

The House Ways and Means Committee is under heavy pressure to act on the extension sometime this week. The surtax, now pegged at 10 per cent, is due to die at month's end unless Congress approves an extension.

Although not all Democrats on the committee favor Nixon's plans to extend the surcharge at its present rate for six months and then reduce it to 5 per cent for the rest of the fiscal year, they failed in a two-hour meeting Tuesday to come up with a modified version.

In the absence of a united Democratic front there seemed little doubt the President's proposal would get committee approval on a yes-or-no vote.

The 10 Republican members solidly back the White House and at least four of the 15 Democrats would go along, sources said.

But whether an unpopular bill given such a Republican label could pass the Democratic-controlled House was another question.

War Changed By Chair

DETROIT (AP) — The chair which may have won World War II has been purchased for the gymnasium of a downtown Detroit hotel.

The Shaker-Pudding chair of the Queen Mary was purchased at an auction of the Queen Mary recently and is now in the LeLand House.

The exercise chair of the Queen Mary was a favorite of Winston Churchill's. He used the Queen Mary during WW II as his headquarters at sea, and it was there that he had a disastrous meeting with DeGaulle.

Word got out that the French general thought Churchill was a

"vain and pompous person" and that cooperation was impeded as a result. Churchill moved quickly to bridge the gap.

DeGaulle was on the ship and wandered into the gymnasium. There he saw Churchill sitting nude on the vibrating chair, puffing furiously on a cigar shaking in his rotundity like the proverbial bowl of gelatin.

"My dear Charles, if I were vain and pompous, would I be sitting here looking like a bloody ass in the Shaker - Pudding chair?" Churchill called out to the Frenchman.

DeGaulle cut up at the sight of Churchill, and the two soon emerged arm in arm as friends.

The deadlock was broken and a crisis averted.

The chair was used on the elegant Queen Mary of the Cunard line by such people as King George and Queen Mary, J.P. Morgan, Joseph P. Kennedy, Robert and Edward Kennedy, John D. Rockefeller Jr. and Chang Kai Shek.

The Queen Mary and her sister ship the Queen Elizabeth were once the consorts of nobility until the increasing use of jet transportation put the glorious ocean-liners out of the big business.

After the verdict was announced, the mother of the victim, Mrs. Rebecca Pollard, said she thought it was a fair trial and the prosecutor did all he could "but the jury refused to believe the facts."

She added, "I didn't think they would find him guilty."

The verdict had repercussions in the State Senate, where a Negro lawmaker introduced a resolution calling for an investigation of the conduct of the judge in restricting the jury to only two possible verdicts.

U. S. Officials Call It Typical Red Concoction

SAIGON (AP)—The National Liberation Front, which says it has set up a "provisional revolutionary government" to rule South Vietnam, announced tonight what it said was the new political unit's "12-point action plan."

The announcement came in an evening broadcast over the clandestine Viet Cong radio, which Tuesday night announced formation of the provisional government.

Among other things, the "action plan" pledged cooperation "with other political parties in South Vietnam as well as abroad to set up a provisional coalition government. This government will organize a general election to create a (National) Assembly."

Thieu Warning
President Nguyen Van Thieu of South Vietnam warned on Monday that anyone advocating any kind of coalition government would be severely punished, regardless of his position or political importance.

U. S. officials in Paris said today that new provisional revolutionary government in South Vietnam is a "typical Communist concoction" and added that it will change nothing in the Paris peace talks.

In the first U.S. reaction to the announcement by the National Liberation Front, it was stated that the United States has always regarded its adversaries as "the other side" and would continue to do so regardless of nomenclature.

It had been feared that the sudden transformation of the NLF into a revolutionary government might inject major complications into the deadlocked peace talks.

Same People
The change includes the appointment of Mrs. Nguyen Thi Binh, a member of the NLF Central Committee as foreign minister of the new government and head of its delegation to the Paris talks.

The U.S. sources said that whatever the other side calls itself it is made up of the same people with a long record of Communist or fellow traveler background. In any event, it was said, the NLF has long claimed a quasigovernmental status in South Vietnam and it now becomes simply "a front for the front."

The group whether known as the NLF or a revolutionary government, these sources added, continues to receive its direction and its major support from North Vietnam.

The U.S. officials declined to say what it believed motivated the NLF action. Whatever the intent may have been, it was stated, the fact remains that on March 25 South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu offered to begin private negotiations with the NLF and the offer has not been accepted.

The move may have been timed to take the edge off the show of solidarity by President Nixon and Thieu at their Midway Island meeting Sunday.

County Okays College District

FLINT (AP)—Genesee County voters approved creation of a countywide college district and transfer of Flint Junior College to a seven-member board of trustees, but defeated a proposed 1.4-mill tax to support it in an election Monday.

Flint Junior College, now operated by the Flint School Board, would become a county institution with transfer to the college district.

Trustees, also elected Monday, now will have two more chances to win voter approval of a tax on which to operate. Otherwise, the district is dissolved.

Hot Lunch Program Debated By Board

By BOB GREGG

A possible school hot lunch program was hotly debated at Tuesday night's school board meeting.

Charles Dean, chairman of the Better Understanding of Schools (BUS) committee, told the Escanaba Area Board of Education that he believes a good class 'A' hot lunch program could be reinstated in area schools without a loss in school funds.

Dean said his committee could not understand why the program was "dropped" in the first place. "We feel the board eliminated the problem rather than repair it," said Dean.

Mrs. Gerald Reid, a member of Dean's committee, told the board about an existing study the committee had made on the hot lunch programs in the Marquette and Alpena school systems.

Lunch Can Work

"These school systems are about the same as ours, and they run their own school lunch programs without too much difficulty or too much deficit," Mrs. Reid said.

Dean claimed that a local survey proved a class 'A' program could work in Escanaba area schools. His committee feels that a staff and equipment should be maintained by the board for Escanaba area children, he said.

Albin Pearson Jr., board chairman, questioned Dean as to how the board could create a hot lunch program if it might mean a greater financial deficit for the area schools.

"We have to be practical," he said. "Can you or your committee guarantee we are going to get the money back that we put into such a program?" James Burroughs of Lansing, state director of lunch programs and a guest of both the board and the committee, answered Pearson.

"I couldn't guarantee that. At this point, over 50 per cent of the school lunch programs in the state are being operated at a loss," he said.

Surplus In 1965-66

Ted Breitenbach, ex-director of the Escanaba Area school lunch program, reminded the board that as recently as 1965-66 the lunch program operated with a surplus of funds.

Luther Barrett, school superintendent, agreed that Breitenbach was correct in his statement, but added: "From 1965-66, until it was stopped in September of 1967, the program operated at a loss."

Ralph Kaziatek, board trustee, asked Dean why the committee continued to talk about past programs that failed, and why their study didn't give a solution to current problems.

"The action of past boards is all water over the dam," Kaziatek said. "Give us something progressive. If you need more time we'll give it to you."

The board then continued questioning Burroughs.

Burroughs told the board that some of the Escanaba area schools might possibly qualify for federal aid of up to 25 cents per meal.

To Continue Study

The board finally decided to make a detailed plan at a future meeting showing all the costs and revenues of a possible lunch program. The motion was passed by a 4 to 1 vote, with Pearson voting against the plan.

In other business, the board on a split vote after considerable discussion relieved John Holochowst of his duties as teaching principal at the Ford River elementary school. Holochowst will be assigned to another school in the district.

A proposed budget for a community school program also was discussed.

Barrett told the board that it could expect revenues of approximately $34,100 for a program where expenses were estimated at $27,300.

Pearson and Kaziatek felt the program should be initiated this fall. A motion was adopted to investigate the hiring of a director.

Robert Micensky, senior high principal, reported new changes in school curriculum to the board.

"This year we will have 14 classes that will start at 7:45," Micensky said. He added that students would begin school on a staggered schedule so that more classroom facilities would be available.

Micensky closed with a statement to the board that new teachers would do students no good without new classroom facilities. Barrett supported Micensky by noting that 1,480 students are expected to enroll in September in a high school building with a rated optimum capacity of 1,250.

College Names Man To Teach Welding Courses

Gordon L. Reveal

Appointment of Gordon L. Reveal of Berwyn, Ill., to the faculty of Bay de Noc Community College was announced today by Dr. William Butt, academic dean.

Reveal has been employed by Taylor Forge and Pipeworks of Chicago for the past 30 years as an industrial welder.

He attended the University of Illinois, Illinois Institute of Technology, and American Institute of Engineering and Technology. He has been certified by the State of Illinois to teach all types of welding, and for the past five years has been instructing in the public schools of Illinois.

Reveal is married to the former Vivian Lemirand of McFarland. They are the parents of two grown children. For several years the Reveals have spent their vacation in the Treena area. They anticipate moving to the Escanaba area during the latter part of the summer.

Reveal's major responsibilities will include the teaching of welding in the Industrial Technology Division of the college.

Macon, celebrated city of the Orient, displays an air of relative tranquility these days.

Eavesdrop Data Ties Gangland With Officials

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — The federal government has produced records of electronic eavesdropping on New Jersey organized-crime figures containing discussions of gangland killings and involvement with public officials.

The records, making 13 printed volumes, were filed in U.S. District Court at the request of reputed Mafia overlord Samuel "Sam the Plumber" DeCavalcante of Princeton, who is seeking to void an indictment for extortion.

DeCavalcante hoped to show that illegal wiretapping figured in the indictment. The government denies this.

The charge is that in 1966 DeCavalcante, 56, conspired with two Brooklyn, N.Y., men to extort money from four gamblers.

The recorded conversations, which the office of U.S. Atty. David Satz said were between reputed Mafia figures, contained references to Mayor Thomas Dunn of Elizabeth, U.S. Rep. Cornelius Gallagher, D-

Haase To Open Barber Shop In Escanaba June 16

California Sues Chrysler Motors

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The State of California sued Chrysler Motors Corp. Tuesday on grounds it falsely advertised the price of Sunbeam Alpine GT automobiles.

In a lawsuit filed in Superior Court, Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch said Chrysler advertised the purchase price at $49.4 a month. Lynch said the actual price is about $950 down and $64 for 36 months.

"The defendants know, and should have known, at the time, that such representation was untrue and misleading," Lynch said in the suit.

The suit seeks an injunction against similar advertisements and unspecified civil monetary penalties.

It said the advertisement appeared June 8 in the Los Angeles Times West Magazine, a Sunday supplement.

"By the use of such representation in connection with the conduct of its business, the defendant intended to deceive, induce and mislead members of the public into purchasing its motor vehicles," Lynch said.

Local Soldier Is Injured

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. — A 28-year-old Hopkinsville, Tenn. man was killed and a local soldier seriously injured early Tuesday morning, June 3, when the motorcycle on which they were riding crashed into the side of an automobile.

Dead on arrival at Fort Campbell U. S. Army Hospital was Harold Dean Cavanaugh, 28, of Hopkinsville. Seriously injured was Pfc. Michael L. Scott, 19, Hg. & Hq. Co. U. S. Army Garrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Scott, Gladstone Rte. 1 (Carroll's Corners).

Scott, a passenger on the motorcycle, suffered a fractured left leg and lacerations on the right leg and right arm. His parents were with him at the Fort Campbell Hospital all last week.

Pfc. Scott will be a patient at the hospital from eight months to a year and his address is: Pfc. Michael L. Scott, R. A. 16965422 USA Hospital Ward 8 A. B., Fort Campbell, Ky.

Not injured in the mishap was the driver of the car, Spec. 4 William E. Caston, 20, assigned to the same Army outfit as Pfc. Scott.

U. P. Districts OK Millages

By The Associated Press
Eight districts in the eastern Upper Peninsula all approved millage proposals, but the Tahquamenon District, which includes all of Luce County and some townships in bordering Chippewa, Mackinac and Schoolcraft counties, defeated a proposed $2.75 million bond issue.

The Tahquamenon bond issue, however, lost by a mere 64 votes, 418-482, but even this was a wider margin than the same proposal was defeated by last December. Then the margin of defeat was a mere 40 votes.

The Les Cheneaux District approved 10 mills additional for operations, St. Ignace, four mills for four years; Engadine, six mills for three years; Brevort, one mill for four years; Mackinac Island, seven mills; Pickford five mills; Superior 2 mills and Rudyard 1.5 mills.

According to a recorded transcript, Dunn allegedly called on DeCavalcante at the Kenilworth office Oct. 23, 1964, a few days before Dunn was elected mayor.

In a four-page statement, Dunn said he had a meeting with DeCavalcante but "at no time did anyone in the room, including 'Sam' ask me to do anything irregular or illegal."

Mother Of 7 Wins Degree

ROCK — A Bachelor of Science degree in elementary education has been won at Northern Michigan University by a woman who graduated from high school 36 years ago, who "retired" from the teaching profession to raise a family back in 1947.

She is Mrs. Vilho (Irene) Kaukola of Rock, who at 49 is both proud of her seven children and her degree from NMU.

Most of the credits were earned in summer and evening credit courses, to which she traveled many, many miles to Bay de Noc Community College at Escanaba, K. I. Sawyer Air

Mrs. Vilho Kaukola

'Get Started'

In 1963 Dr. Richard Rinehart, president of Bay de Noc Community College, addressed Rock High School graduates.

"The only way to achieve your dreams is to get started making them a reality," he said.

Mrs. Kaukola, in the audience, was impressed. She began her studies at Northern Michigan University that summer.

Force Base and to NMU at Marquette — all this in addition to teaching.

Graduating from high school in Chicago she was unable for various reasons to attend college, and she postponed — but never gave up — her dream of higher education.

She worked as cost accountant for the State of Illinois and began a long, steady pathway of learning through attendance at evening classes. She entered the U.S. Navy Women's Reserve in 1943 with one and one-half years of college credits attained.

Duty with the Navy took her to Hunter College for boot training, to Hospital Corps in Bainbridge, Md., Brooklyn, N.Y., Memphis, Tenn., and to Hawaii before her discharge in 1945. Via the Navy she acquired 11 semester hours of college credits.

Returning to Chicago she graduated from Chicago Wright City (two-year) College in June, 1946, and married Vilho Kaukola 10 days later. She had met the young man from Rock while in the Navy. They moved to Rock where they lived on a farm and she taught for one year at the Rock High School.

Then the children started coming. Bill, the oldest, is now in the Navy and would have been a member of the 1969 NMU graduating class if he hadn't enlisted; Mary Kay and Rita are at Michigan State University; Eileen graduated from Rock High School this spring and will enter MSU this fall.

The younger ones are at home. Jim will be a senior, Eugene a sophomore and Regina will be in the seventh grade at Rock this fall.

When her children were all in school Mrs. Kaukola began teaching again — half-days at Perkins, then in 1964 in the Turin Township School followed by the Skandia Elementary School, where she is presently teaching. All the while she continued with her evening classes. Now "Mom" has her degree. It would have been impossible without the help and understanding of her family, she says. And son Bill's presence — home on leave — gave the event its final pleasant touch.

Harvey Reports On City Affairs

A report on the current state of municipal affairs in Escanaba was presented by George Harvey, Escanaba city manager, to the Rotary Club at its meeting Tuesday noon at the House of Ludington.

Dr. Richard Rinehart conducted the meeting and Clint Dunathan of the club's program committee introduced the speaker.

Harvey summarized the activities of the city's several departments and noted that public services have increased in scope and cost with the growth of the community.

Paramount programs include planning to extend the city's sanitary sewage collection system and up-grade the disposal of wastes to meet higher state and federal standards; and planning for the expansion of the municipal electric generating station to meet the needs of the area, he reported.

In response to questions he discussed financing of city services and said that a city income tax, whose "need can not be foreseen at this time" is being discussed as a matter of public information.

"As of today I see no need for a city income tax in Escanaba," Harvey said. But Marquette and an increasing number of Michigan cities are studying the city income tax as an alternative to increasing property taxes.

"Most Michigan cities are nearing the top figure they can levy in property tax," he noted.

End Duplicate Orbiting Labs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cancellation of the Air Force's $3 billion manned orbiting laboratory program leaves the nation's man-in-space field open for the civilian space agency's sole development.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration for some time has been pushing its own plan for an "orbiting workshop" where scientists would conduct experiments in astronomy, medicine and other fields.

NASA sources acknowledge there has been some conflict because both the Air Force's MOL and the civilian orbiting workshop would be embryonic space stations, and an increasingly economy-minded Congress might balk at a seeming duplication.

The Pentagon action Tuesday in scrubbing the military program to save money has resolved the issue of overlap.

But whatever else the planned civilian space station can do, it will not be able to spy on the Soviet Union and Red China, as the military MOL reportedly would have done.

F. J. Perra, 83, Taken By Death

Frederick Joseph Perra, 83, of Schaffer, died early today at St. Francis Hospital following an illness of three months.

He was born April 25, 1886, in Nadeau and had resided in Schaffer for the past 67 years. Mr. Perra was a member of Sacred Heart Church of Schaffer and the Chicago & North Western Veteran's Association. He had been employed as a telegrapher for the C&NW Railway for 45 years until his retirement in 1934.

He is survived by his widow, Brenda; three stepsons, Henry Seymour of Flint, Hubert and Roy of Bark River; three stepdaughters, Mrs. Charlotte Tounsignant and Mrs. Louis (Gert-rude) Tounsignant of Schaffer and Mrs. Ralph (Theresa) DeCaire of Escanaba; three sisters, Mrs. Flossie DeMars of Powers, Mrs. Lottie LeMieux of Nadeau and Mrs. Al (Roxie) Reichert of Oakland, Calif., 19 grandchildren and 33 great grandchildren.

Friends may call at the Boyle Funeral Chapel from 4 to 9:30 p. m., Friday and parish prayers will be recited at 8 p. m. Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a. m., Saturday at Sacred Heart Church with the Rev. C. J. Mark officiating and burial will be in the Sacred Heart Cemetery.

Problems Of Cities Top League Program

Cities of the Upper Peninsula, like those downstate, have similar problems and these will be explored and studied at sessions of the U.P. Michigan Municipal League annual meeting to be held in Gladstone and Escanaba starting Thursday.

The Terrace Motel is conference headquarters where registration will open at 9:30 a.m. Thursday. Opening general session is at 10 o'clock.

A group of city managers will compose a panel to discuss some of the more pressing problems confronting cities in Michigan and other states, including:

- Senior citizens and low income housing.
- Downtown parking.

- The role of the cities in labor negotiations.
- Federal grants.

Henry A. Skewis mayor of Ishpeming and regional vice chairman of the Municipal League, will preside at the opening general session; and at the opening luncheon Thursday noon there will be remarks by William H. Taylor Jr., Pontiac mayor and president of the Michigan Municipal League.

Thursday afternoon there will be concurrent sessions on property assessment; and on "clean waters" and related standards. Newly-elected mayors, presidents and councilmen of cities and villages in the Upper Peninsula will discuss laws affecting Michigan municipalities.

Topics such as "What home rule means," "Municipal building authorities," "Ordinance making," "Conflict of interest provisions" and other subjects are scheduled for discussion.

Among the latter are practical matters of "Handling the Council Meetings," and "Responding to Citizens Pressures."

The Thursday evening banquet is scheduled for 7 o'clock at the Gladstone Yacht Clubhouse, and weather permitting the delegates will go by boat to Gladstone from Escanaba, and return by bus. The banquet speaker will be John Dempsey, urban affairs consultant to Gov. William Milliken.

Friday morning session will concern itself with general discussion of two topics: Legal and administrative steps with problem properties — such as razing of dilapidated "eyesore structures" — and acquisition of tax reverted lands; and the federal highway act to increase traffic capacity and safety.

The League will adjourn shortly before lunchtime Friday.

Rev. J. H. Ablett To Serve Central Church

At the 128th session of the Detroit Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church being held this week at Adrian College, Adrian, Mich., the Rev. Robert L. Selberg, pastor of the Central United Methodist Church of Escanaba was appointed to the Faith United Methodist Church of Trenton, Mich., effective June 16, 1969.

Pastor Selberg and his family have served the Central United Methodist Church of Escanaba for the past six years. He came to Escanaba following a four year pastorate in Hancock, Mich.

Returns To Detroit Area

He now returns to the Detroit area where he was born and served previous to his U.P. appointments. During his ministry in Escanaba, the present church structure was completed on 23rd St. and 3rd Ave. S. These six years in the Escanaba area have proven challenging to his family in the sharing with the growth that the Escanaba area has experienced.

Appointed to the Central United Methodist Church at this session of Conference was the Rev. Joseph H. Ablett, Rev. Ablett was born and raised in the Detroit area. He received his A. B. degree from Manchester College, North Manchester, Ind. and graduated from Bethany Seminary, Chicago, Ill., with a B. D. degree in 1956.

That same year he was ordained an elder and received into full connection in the Detroit Conference. He served the Kochville (Saginaw) Church from 1956-1963, and was then assigned to the Escanaba United Methodist Church where he served for the past six years.

His conference duties have included Board of Education, Youth Commission, Hospitals and Homes committee, Conference Youth Council, Moving Expense committee and the Adequate Support commissions, the latter two of which he is currently a member.

Camp Program

Rev. Ablett's District responsibilities have been District Youth Director, Evangelism committee, Vocations committee, District Board of Ministry, President of the Ministers' Associations (district, local and sub-district). He served in the District Church Camp program for 11 years, and of those 11 years, he served three as registrar and five as dean. He is presently serving as Dean of Junior High Camp at Camp Knight.

Rev. Ablett and his wife, Wilma, are the parents of four children: Barbara Gail, 18, entering Adrian College in September, Richard Bruce, 16; Barry Joseph, 12; and Marcia Lynn, 10 will be living in Escanaba and attending the Escanaba Area Public Schools.

Milton Embs

City Controller Embs Resigns

Milton Embs, 507 S. 8th St., Escanaba city controller, is resigning his position effective June 30, he has advised City Manager George Harvey.

In accepting the resignation today, Harvey expressed regret and said that at this time he has not named a successor.

Embs began employment with the city as administrative assistant in January, 1960, and became city controller in September, 1966. His appointment filled a vacancy caused by the resignation of Frank Bourke, who had accepted a position with Michigan Consolidated Gas Co.

A native of Escanaba, Embs was office manager for the Shepey Dimension & Lumber Co. at Wells before becoming administrative assistant to A.V. Aronson, former city manager.

He had been associated with the firm at Wells since 1943 and before that was employed by the I. Stephenson Co.

The Arctic term in spring completes the second half of a 22,000-mile trip from the Arctic to Antarctica.

Congratulations

To Messrs Lankford, West and Tooman, and thanks to the 422 citizens who knew me well enough to vote for me.

Armory At Last

There has been a sign along Marble Ave. in Gladstone for about as long as anyone cares to remember proclaiming a piece of ground near the Marble Athletic Field as the site for the future National Guard armory.

The sign has been there so long, in fact, that the paint has weathered and it's almost been forgotten.

Residents of Gladstone, who for years hoped the armory project would provide the community with a gymnasium for the high school, got tired of waiting for funds to be approved and went ahead and voted to build a gymnasium on their own.

And then Saturday, Rep. Charles Varnum of Manistique made public an announcement of the approval of $150,000 in state funds to construct a new National Guard armory in Gladstone. He said the state grant will be joined by $273,000 in federal funds and $75,000 in local money to finance construction of the new facility which, when completed, will give Co. C, 107th Engineers, its first permanent home.

Varnum said he has been informed by Brig. Gen. Carson R. Neifert, assistant adjutant general of the Michigan National Guard, that construction is expected to start in the fall.

Gladstone has held down the top priority on the list of scheduled armory construction for so long that the feeling was quite strong an armory never would be built in the area. The site has been available ever since the local unit moved from Escanaba to Gladstone somewhere around the turn of the century.

Actually, it hasn't been quite that long, but for the people involved in the countless meetings and hours of discussion on the possibility of an armory for Gladstone the years of frustration must have seemed much longer.

The City of Gladstone has had the local funds available for the project for years, but somewhere there was always a roadblock at the state or federal end.

For awhile, the story went that federal money had been appropriated but no appropriation had been made in Michigan. Lately, the delay has been attributed to Washington where a "freeze" on all armory construction was ordered and not "thawed" until recent months.

While the armory project was held up, however, the National Guard unit here has been a nomadic unit, moving from Escanaba into the Rialto Building in Gladstone and then last winter back to Wells Township into the former Delta Nursing Home, an ancient building that the State Health Dept. regarded as unfit for elderly persons but apparently all right for Guardsmen. The unit's equipment is still stored in several locations in Gladstone.

But while the armory project will be of great benefit to the local unit, the community should regard it as an even broader perspective.

Although specific plans for the building will not be developed until later this summer after a meeting between National Guard brass from Lansing and the Gladstone Armory Committee, headed by Reuben Sjoquist, and probably the City Commission, the building definitely will include a large, gymnasium type room for use as a drill area.

This room, plus other facilities which could be incorporated into the building such as an indoor pistol range, etc., open up greater possibilities for community use.

While the new gymnasium in Gladstone and the subsequent Community School program have helped provide a program of activities for the city, there are other recreational and social activities which haven't been tapped.

The new armory should help fill the gaps.

Booby Traps For Debtors

Applying for a personal loan, George was asked to write down all of his outstanding debts. Afraid he might not get the loan, he listed a total of only $1,500 — even though he actually owed more than $3,500.

Not long afterward, his burden of debt became so heavy that he went into bankruptcy. This did wipe out much of his indebtedness. But to his dismay, he found that bankruptcy did not wipe out his obligation to repay the loan — because he had gotten the money by giving a false financial statement.

Bankruptcy discharges most of a person's debts. But it does not get rid of a debt incurred through fraud. Thus, by deceiving the lender, the debtor may be setting a booby trap for himself.

On the other hand, the law also recognizes that the loan company itself may be at fault. Some lenders actually encourage the debtor to make a false financial statement, so they can keep a grip on him in case he goes bankrupt. Take this case:

A man filling out a loan application paused when he came to the space where he was supposed to list all of his obligations. Reassuringly, the manager said:

"Just put down one or two. That's all we need."

This man too went bankrupt some time afterward. And the loan company insisted the loan was not wiped out by the bankruptcy "because he gave us a false financial statement."

But this time the court ruled that the debt was indeed canceled, blaming the company's manager for inducing the debtor to fill out the form that way.

Furthermore, a loan company cannot point the finger at false information if it did not in fact rely on that information in making the loan. In one case, a company gave a man a loan even though it knew — from data in its own files — that he was in worse shape than he admitted on the application.

Again, a court decided the debt to the loan company was canceled by bankruptcy — despite the debtor's false financial statement. The judge said the company could not fairly complain about deception if it wasn't really deceived at all.

UPCAP Asks Evaluation Of Its Own Organization

At the request of the organization itself, an evaluation survey of UPCAP is being conducted by a team from the University of Michigan.

At the annual meeting at St. Ignace a survey sheet was presented, which will be mailed out to all delegate body members and those who have been close to and affiliated with UPCAP.

The survey seeks to determine public opinion on what program of UPCAP is most important, and which the least important, to the Upper Peninsula.

The survey team also wants to know whether UPCAP is considered to have the proper combination of planning and action, and if not which should be brought up to desired levels.

One of the questions which has recurred before UPCAP is the area of decision making, and the survey seeks to gain a majority opinion on whether decisions should come from staff, executive committee or delegate body.

Currently, UPCAP meets quarterly and there has been some sentiment favoring a semi-annual meeting. Members of the delegate body, particularly, are being asked whether enough information channels to them to make valid decisions.

UPCAP itself seeks, through the questionnaire, to determine how it may best adopt a continuing inventory of its own processes and performance. Three questions of major importance complete the survey effort, which seeks to gain opinion on what UPCAP can do to improve services to the Upper Peninsula and to identify those groups most critical of, and those more supportive of, UPCAP programs.

Major programs now under way in the field of human resources are the:

Community Action Program

Most units are winding up processing materials required for refunding. Two groups, the Menominee-Delta-Schoolcraft and the Chippewa-Luce-Mackinac units have already been approved. One of their chief concerns is the Head Start program, and efforts are being made to eliminate summer programs in favor of a more intensified full-year program starting with Sept. 1969. Three have already made the move, the 1970 summer programs being erased from the schedule in favor of the full school year. These are Dickinson-Iron, Baraga-Houghton-Keweenaw and Chippewa-Luce-Mackinac.

The Neighborhood Youth Programs will continue this summer with a budget of $165,190, which will provide summer employment for 400 enrollees for 10 weeks, working 28 hours a week. Rate of pay will be $1.30 an hour. This will provide 66 work slots in each of the six Community Action Administration areas in the Upper Peninsula.

UPCAP has been instrumental in gaining further grants for continued Legal Aid to the indigent, but it will need greater local cooperation in the succeeding years to gain further funding of the program.

Huston's Only Goal Is Immediate One

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — John Huston is a free soul in an age of anxiety.

In 63 years of living crammed with variety and excitement he has been a boxer, lieutenant with the Mexican cavalry, painter, folksinger, screen writer, actor and film director.

"I've never had any goal except the immediate one, whatever that might be," he remarked. "Now I just make pictures, ride horses, collect paintings and regrets, and have the best time I can."

"Most of my regrets, however, are of such a private nature that they would hardly bear either repetition or printing."

Huston, leathery-faced and lanky as a cowboy, has had a lark in helping spend more than $50 million of other people's money while making 29 films. They include such memorable ones as "The Maltese Falcon," "The Treasure of the Sierra Madre," "The African Queen," and "The Bible."

"I believe I'm the only one in film history who has directed himself, his father, and his daughter," he said.

His famous father, Walter Huston, appeared in "The Treasure of the Sierra Madre." His daughter, Anjelica, 18, stars in the soon to be released "A Walk with Love and Death," and John has gone before the camera in several of his films, including his latest, "The Kremlin Letter," a spy thriller.

Asked which member of his family was the best actor, John smiled and said:

"There's no question about that—it was Dad."

"The only time I act is when I can't get anyone else for the role. And as an actor I'm always in accord with the director — when I'm the director."

Between film chores Huston spends most of his time tallying behind foxhounds on his 100-acre estate in Galway, Ireland.

"I'm also interested in the creation of an Irish film industry. They're just about to embark on it, and I'd like to direct some Irish films next."

Under questioning, John said these things:

"My greatest defect is misplaced faith in certain horses."

"I suppose my greatest virtue is that, in filming a scene, I refuse to compromise with anything but the best or, at least, the best as I see it."

"Life itself fascinates me, each moment as it comes along. I don't know that I have a philosophy, but I never do anything that doesn't entertain me. That way a man can't be bored."

"What defeats most men in life? Probably the fact that they make false gods for themselves and strive to attain things that don't have an enduring value for them."

"Fears, too, however legitimate, hurt both individuals and nations. Fear can cause them to do things that destroy them and keep them from doing the other things that are really important to their happiness or even survival."

NOT HIS DAY

SANTA FE, N. M. (AP) — State Sen. Alfonso Montoya found frustration in a recent session of the New Mexico Legislature.

The senate in the space of a minute adopted adverse committee reports killing six bills sponsored by the Democratic legislator.

New Mexico's senate rarely has killed six bills in one day, let alone six by one senator. Montoya is the brother of U. S. Sen. Joseph M. Montoya, D-N. M.

Opening lead—queen of clubs.

Here is another interesting hand from Dorothy Hayden's excellent new book, "Winning Declarer Play," just published by Harper and Row.

The deal demonstrates how clear thinking by declarer can solve what appears to be a difficult problem.

South arrives at four spades and West leads the queen of clubs. Declarer wins in dummy with the ace, leads the jack of spades, taking East's queen with the ace, cashes the king of clubs, ruffs a club, and then exits with a trump, hoping West will be forced to win with the king and return a heart or diamond to one of South's red kings.

But East wins the spade and returns a low heart, putting South to a crucial guess.

If declarer thinks East has the ace and West the queen, he should play the king, but if he thinks East has the queen and West the ace, he should play the jack.

Here is how Mrs. Hayden explains what declarer should do in this critical situation:

"It may seem a matter of guesswork, but it isn't. The right play at this point is clearly the jack. Here's the reason: In order to make the hand, you must hold yourself to one diamond loser. As you'll have to play diamonds yourself, it means you'll have to find the diamond ace in East's hand. If East has the diamond ace in addition to the K-Q of spades, he can't possibly have the heart ace or he would have opened the bidding. Your only hope, therefore, is that East has the queen, so you put in the jack."

What Mrs. Hayden says in effect is that if the success of a contract depends on finding a particular card in a particular player's hand, you should assume that it is there and act accordingly.

Ann Landers

Bride Weds Cousin Of Groom, He's Ill

Dear Ann Landers: I attended a wedding last week which left me horribly depressed. Now another thing occurs to me. Was it legal?

The bride and groom both live in another city, but the wedding was held in the home town of the bride. It was a church affair. The bride walked down the aisle on her father's arm. She looked like she'd been crying for a week. When they reached the altar the minister announced that the groom was in the hospital, ill, and his cousin would serve as his proxy.

The cousin came forward, stood by the bride and responded "I do" to all the questions. He then put the ring on her finger and the minister said, "I now pronounce you man and wife." They did not kiss at the close of the ceremony, which was quite a relief.

There were no felicitations or congratulations. The families wept all over each other and left the church. It was more like a funeral than a wedding. Please tell me if you have ever heard of such a thing and if the marriage is valid.—Vicksburg, Miss.

Dear Vick: Proxy marriages are legal in some states, but Mississippi is not one of them. (Neither is Illinois.)

Obviously the bride believes she is married. Someone ought to acquaint her with the facts. And the minister as well.

Dear Ann Landers: I am 24 and have been married for two years. Last April I gave birth to a premature boy. My labor was long and complicated. The boy lived only three hours.

I wasn't allowed to have any anesthetic because the doctor wanted to give the baby every chance. I remember every second of my labor and it was a horrible experience.

I realize the first delivery is usually the most difficult, but the thought of getting pregnant again terrifies me. My husband and I both want to try again, but my fear of pregnancy has made me anti-sex and I burst into tears over the least little thing. I'd crack up for sure if I become pregnant while I'm in this state of mind.

If you think therapy would help, I'll go. Many thanks. —Nightmare Revisited.

Dear N.: Your anxieties are hanging on much too long. A competent therapist and a supportive husband should solve the problem. Go for help and good luck.

Dear Ann Landers: I am an M.D. who reads you often. Today I was dismayed to find you recommending cleaning fluid to remove gum from the body.

Unfortunately, carbon tetrachloride is still used in cleaning solutions. Absorption of this substance through the skin or by inhalation can cause serious liver and kidney damage. I hate to think that thousands of mothers who read your column will be scrubbing their kids with cleaning fluid. I hope you will issue an appropriate warning.—W. N., M. D. (River-side)

Dear Dr.: My medical consultants say it would take a lot of scrubbing with cleaning fluid to damage the liver and kidneys. But why take a chance? So — all you mommies out there whose kids are stuck to the chairs, tricycles and piano benches — use olive oil or pure vegetable oil. Wrigley's and Leaf brand agree it is the safest gum remover.

Too many couples go from matrimony to acrimony. Don't let your marriage flop before it gets started. Send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Marriage—What To Expect." Send your request to Ann Landers in care of your newspaper enclosing 50c in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Re-Elect Scholle AFL-CIO Head

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) —August Scholle was re-elected president of the state AFL-CIO as the labor confederation met for the first time since the United Auto Workers pulled out a year ago.

The UAW pullout made austerity measures the major topic on the agenda. The AFL-CIO in Michigan was decimated by the loss of the gigantic UAW, largest single union in the AFL-CIO before it left and strongest in Michigan.

State membership is now only 290,000, down from 800,000 before the UAW's departure last year. Treasury shortages and recommended cutbacks to balance the budget were high priority items for the AFL-CIO convention.

Scholle admitted the union confederation and no choice but to retrench, although it will seek to recruit some of the 300,000 unaffiliated labor union members in the state.

All union operations are being moved to Lansing save publication of the AFL-CIO News, which will stay in Detroit.

The convention also eliminated the position of state executive vice president. William C. Marshall, who held the position, was elected secretary-treasurer, succeeding Barney Hopkins, who is retiring.

Nation's largest producer of teachers is Michigan State University, with 1,600 graduates in 1965.

August's Wife Wants To Forget

MASON (AP) — The wife of a suspended Detroit patrolman, Ronald August and the mother of the youth he killed shared a common wish today—"to forget the Algiers Motel trial ever happened."

For one woman—dark-haired, slender Genevieve August—the outcome of the trial was just as she had been predicting and "was praying every day for."

But to Rebecca Pollard, mother of the 19-year-old black youth slain at the motel at the height of the 1967 Detroit riot, the acquittal of the white policeman

Boys Prepare For Jamboree

Several boys from this area will be among those from the Upper Peninsula who will attend the National Boy Scout Jamboree to be held in Idaho this summer.

The special troop from the Hiawathaland Council, Boy Scouts of America, will have Glenn Tollefson of Gladstone as one of its leaders.

The boys will hold a pre-Jamboree training session at Camp Hiawatha in Alger County the weekend of June 13-15.

The Scouts now signed for the Jamboree are:

Darryl Bertrand, 702 Oak; Donald Lofquist, Colonial Motel; and Paul Decelle, 134 New Delta, all of Manistiquette.

Mark Bydalek, Ford River Road; James Christiansen, 421 Ogden Ave.; Thomas Sankovich, 403 S. 7th St.; John Bedard, 307 S. 18th St., all of Escanaba.

Thomas, John and Joseph Dehlin, 1225 Minnesota; Neil Gerber, 1514 Minnesota, all of Gladstone.

There is opening for one more boy, the Boy Scout Council reports. The boys will leave Iron Mountain by charter bus on July 10.

WIFE FOR SALE, $60,000 — Mrs. Marie Shaw perches prettily on hood of husband Ken's car, waiting for a buyer, presumably, after she and/or the car were advertised "For Sale" in Canterbury, England. She had complained that the car was cold and drafty. His ad read: "Car or wife must go. Car — 1963 MGB, red, all extras, 500 pounds ($1,200). Wife — 1944. 5 ft. 36-24-36, 25,000 pounds ($60,000) or nearest offer."

UP Lawmakers Support Deer

LANSING (AP) — Bear hunting in Michigan's northern Lower Peninsula has received tentative legislative approval.

The House Tuesday voted authority to the Natural Resources Commission to experiment with a two- or three-day season. Under present game laws, bear may be hunted only in the Upper Peninsula. Senate approval of the bill, introduced by Rep. Robert Davis, R-St. Ignace, is required.

Action on the bill sparked an attempt by Upper Peninsula legislators to prohibit hunting antlerless deer—does and fawns—north of the Mackinac Bridge.

A similar measure, introduced by Sens. James D. Gray, D-Lansing and Joseph Mack, D-Ironwood, was approved in the upper chamber.

Rep. Dominic Jacobetti, D-Negaunee, leader of the bucks-only deer season, said "sportsmen will tell you the herd has been declining in the last 14 years."

He charged Natural Resources Commission studies of herd populations are inaccurate.

House conservation committee chairman Thomas Anderson, D-Southgate, said only two states now forbid antlerless deer hunting but are considering changing their laws.

"The whole question is the range-bearing capacity of the area," Anderson said.

Regrowth of Michigan commercial timber stands, conservation experts say, has eliminated forage and cover for deer.

State and federal feeding programs have been set up in recent winters.

Six State Men Die In Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Six Michigan men were among 62 servicemen killed recently in action in the Vietnam War, the Defense Department disclosed Tuesday.

Soldiers killed in action were: Sgt. Clyde D. Lahr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Lahr of rural Bellevue; Spec. 4 Robert S. Dankert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Dankert of Saginaw; and Spec. 4 Harold L. Parkin, husband of Linda S. Parkin, of Wayne.

Marines were: Lance Cpl. Larry J. Eglinsoeder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Eglinsoeder of Milan; Lance Cpl. Douglas D. Ruehle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth V. Petersen of Sumner; and Pfc. Benjamin L. McCullough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley A. McCullough of Clio.

Lack Information On Nursing Homes

LANSING (AP) — The State Health Department has complained that less than half the nursing homes contacted have supplied needed cost information.

"The department has insisted that fair rates cannot be determined without documented cost figures based on a standardized cost accounting system," said Dr. G. G. Rice, department director.

Rice said the state currently is paying nearly $100 million a year for nursing home care.

"We must arrive at some way to establish rates that are related to cost so that available funds are properly used," Rice said.

"The health department has indicated many times that we will support higher payments for nursing homes if the cost information justifies it."

Rice rejected a contention by Basil Boyce, president of the Michigan Nursing Home Association that the department had "wasted" $30 million in such funds in the past two years.

"If Mr. Boyce has any evidence to support his reported charges, he has an obligation to present such information immediately," Rice said. "Meanwhile, I can only say that such a statement seems irresponsible."

State Capitol To Be Lavish

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — A group of legislators has been meeting weekly in secret to plan what could be one of the most lavish state capitols: a soaring, $65-million twin-tower structure.

A drawing shows it to be an edifice to be proud of. So why the secrecy?

Its supporters, who are shy about discussing it publicly, say privately they fear that disclosure before plans are completed will stir taxpayer resentment over cost.

The 24-story building would double the office space for each state senator and assemblyman, with a private bathroom (extra cost $3,000) for each.

To find out how other states and nations are building their new capitols, five legislators have traveled at state expense to such cities as Brasilia, Brazil; Honolulu; Lima, Peru; Lansing, Mich.; Albany, N.Y.; and Santa Fe, N.M.

On one trip, the travelers spent New Year's Eve in a Hawaii.

The secret meetings have been held regularly by the Joint Committee on Legislative Space Needs.

No one has indicated when the taxpayers will be officially appraised of the committee's plans, but the lawmakers are expected to offer a bill next year to authorize a replacement for the columned and domed Capitol that has housed the California Legislature since 1869.

Stop Lawmaker For Drunk Driving

MASON (AP) — State Rep. George Montgomery, D-Detroit, has been released on his own recognizance after standing mute on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor.

Judge James Edgar of Ingham County District Court ordered an innocent plea entered for Montgomery.

Montgomery, 60, was arrested early on the morning of Memorial Day by State Police while driving I 96 in Wheatfield Township.

State Police said Montgomery registered 24 on his breathalyzer test. They said 15 is the legal intoxication limit.

Racial Tensions Worse: Milliken

DEARBORN (AP) — Tensions between races have increased dangerously in Detroit, Gov. William Milliken told a Ford Motor Co. community awards dinner at Dearborn.

The revolution, meanwhile, is moving out into the suburbs, he warned.

"We can only hope and pray that the force of reason can move fast enough to quell the sparks for irrationality that are sure to come," Milliken said Tuesday night.

"The best hope for preventing the next riot can be found in the suburbs and middle class neighborhoods of our larger cities," the governor advised. "Affluent whites must become involved in the life of the inner cities, and middle class blacks have no business severing their ties with the ghetto."

Milliken said the principal reason affluent whites should become involved is because they have a moral involvement in that eventually, they will be forced to do so," he said.

"The handwriting is on the wall," Milliken said. "Militant blacks and their militant white supporters are moving their revolution out of the inner city. They are making their demands heard in the pulpits of suburban churches."

The governor said whites "can reasonably quarrel with these demands, but they can no longer close their ears to them."

"They have two choices in the racial conflict. They can involve themselves voluntarily, or they will be forced into involvement by the swift, outward movement of the revolution."

"If the people of the suburbs are to be safe from riots," Milliken concluded, "which is not altogether certain—they are not safe from tensions or the results of riots."

Firm Must Rehire Sunday Abstainer

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A Grand Rapids company ordered to reinstate a man they fired for refusing to work on Sundays, maintaining it "does not discriminate against employees because of their religious beliefs."

The Reynolds Metals Co. fired the man, Robert Dewey, in September 1966 for refusing to work Sundays. Dewey, 35, was ordered reinstated by U.S. District Judge Noel P. Fox last month after the case has been to labor mediation and civil commissions for consideration.

THAT'S SCOTCH LONDON (AP)—A binding legal definition of Scotch whisky is included in a new government regulation. It describes the stuff as "spirits distilled from cereal mash at less than 166.4 degrees proof in such a way that the distillate has an aroma and flavor derived from the materials used, and matured in wooden casks in a warehouse for at least three years."

Mandate For Reform: Polley

Grand Ledge School Remains Unoccupied

By The Associated Press PUPILS in Muskegon will have the extra teachers their school board asked for, but across the state at Grand Ledge, a $1.4 million school — never opened for classes—will remain empty.

"It's a tragic situation for a school district to have to go on without an adequate program," said Grand Ledge Supt. Kenneth T. Beagle after voters rejected an operating millage levy for the fifth time.

Beagle said the millage defeat also would mean half-day sessions for grades 1-6, less class selection for secondary students and slashes in the extracurricular programs.

The Grand Ledge vote was mirrored across the state as voters pulled tight their purse-strings and defeated nearly 40 per cent of the millage proposals and 61 per cent of the bond issues sought in the state's major school elections this week. An Associated Press survey showed 167 of 271 millage requests approved and 14 of 36 bond issues passed.

Forty-five per cent of the total millage and bond proposals—241 of 539—were turned down thus far this year, compared with 35 per cent of all requests—189 of 540—rejected in the same period of 1968.

Gov. William Milliken said the figures indicate "it would be increasingly difficult to get more money from taxpayers until we can assure them they are getting full educational value for their money."

Such assurance could come from proposals to be submitted to the Legislature this fall by Milliken's special education reform commission.

Election results must be interpreted as "a clear mandate for total reform" of the state's education financing method, said Dr. Ira Polley, state superintendent of public instruction. "While voters in a great many school districts have indicated their willingness to tax themselves to support their schools, a great many others in effect have said: 'No more property taxes for schools.'"

"No other conclusion is possible," Polley said.

ALASKANS ARE YOUNG JUNEAU, Alaska (AP)—Alaska is the most youthful of all states. Half of the entire population is less than 23.3 years of age.

'Largest Duck' Coming To U.P. State Fair

The "world's largest duck," the "Fiddlin' Farmer" and Jo-Jo The Clown have been added to the list of attractions for the 1969 Upper Peninsula State Fair, announced Clifford Perras, fair manager.

The fair opens Tuesday, Aug. 12, and will continue through Sunday, Aug. 17.

"Quacky, the duck, the Fiddlin' Farmer and Jo-Jo will be featured Tuesday through Saturday on the fairgrounds to entertain young and old," Perras said.

Other attractions scheduled include grandstand appearances by Leroy Van Dyke and his Country and Western group, Sonny James and his troupe and Connie Smith, who appeared in 1967.

A battle of bands, drum and bugle corps show, horsepulling, stock car races and the annual Queen's Contest also are scheduled.

Free Performances

Opening day, Tuesday, Aug. 12, is Safety Patrol Day. Perras said, with free grandstand performances by the "Fiddlin' Farmer" in the afternoon and evening. Wednesday is Queen's Day with the annual Upper Peninsula Battle of Combo Bands enlivening the evening program.

Youth and Senior Citizens Day is Thursday, Aug. 14, and will include junior activities in the afternoon and evening and free grandstand shows at 2 and 8 p. m., featuring Van Dyke and his Country and Western group.

Governor's Day is scheduled Friday with square dancing in the blacktop area and Sonny James and Connie Smith featured at the 2 and 8 p. m. grandstand shows.

The horsepulling competition will highlight Agriculture Day, Saturday.

Sunday has been designated Veteran's Day with the drum and bugle corps program by Upper Peninsula units set for 1 p. m., at the grandstand. Stock car racing is scheduled at 8 p. m., Sunday.

Perras said entry days for exhibitors are Sunday and Monday, Aug. 10-11. Gate admission will be $1 per person, he added, with children under 14 admitted free. Parking also is free on the grounds.

Book To Be Mailed

The premium book is being printed and will be mailed July 10. New rules and regulations, divisions and sections have been added with a special participation by all age groups. Applications for employment are being accepted now, Perras said.

The horsepulling competition for both lightweight and heavy-weight teams will use the Michigan Dynamometer Association machine. A resistance device mounted on a truck, the machine measures pull by teams. Current world record for lightweight teams is 3,700 pounds, held by Charles Roehl and Sons of Smith Creek, Mich., and Hugh Davis of Bronson. The heavyweight record is 4,350 pounds, held jointly by Frank Vurckio of Soudown, N. Y., and the Fowler brothers of Montgomery, Mich.

A special barn will be provided for teams entered at the U.P. State Fair and anyone wishing information should contact Lee Thompson, Box 88, Escanaba, director of the event.

Milliken Playing Politics With Slayings: Sheriff

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Washtenaw County Sheriff Douglas J. Harvey Tuesday accused Gov. William Milliken of "playing politics" with the investigation of six murders in the past 22 months in the Ann Arbor-Ypsilanti area.

"The governor is playing politics with the death of a young lady," Harvey said at a news conference Tuesday.

Milliken announced Tuesday morning that "everything that can possibly be done by state authorities in cooperation with local authorities is being done." Harvey said he would welcome any help that would be forthcoming from the State Police, but asserted that he was remaining in command of the investigation.

"I'm in charge," Harvey said. "The governor has authority but not that much authority."

Milliken earlier Tuesday morning reaffirmed his pledge that State Police would cooperate in the investigation but that local officials would retain primary jurisdiction.

Create Wayne College District

LANSING (AP)—The House today approved changes in the 1966 Community College Act to allow creation of a Wayne County College district.

No funds or millage authority were approved, however, and Rep. E. D. O'Brien, D-Detroit, said he would seek reconsideration of the House's approving vote.

O'Brien said millage issues to finance a college have failed twice in Wayne County. "The Legislature shouldn't jam it down their throat," said O'Brien.

Once organized, the College's Board of Trustees would be authorized to borrow, lease or raise funds by taxes for initial development, excavation and construction.

Defeated was a proposal to allow the Board authority to set a 2½ mill property tax to finance the college.

Rock

Leader Banquet
Mrs. Lauri Ranta received a 15-year 4-H leader pin during the Marquette County 4-H leader banquet held recently at Walstrom's Restaurant. Other leaders of the West Rock 4-H Club attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lippens. Mrs. Veikko Luukkonen was awarded a one-year leader pin. Teen leaders attending were Eileen Kaukula and Joanne Niemela. Susan Laitinen and Sharon Lippens, other teen leaders, were awarded pins.

Eileen Kaukula presented a talk on her dairy foods trip to East Lansing as part of the program. The banquet is sponsored by banks of Marquette County.

Jarmo Ruotsalainen from Koshenpa, Finland, is visiting his great uncle, William Ruotsala in Rock. During his three month visit to the States, he will also visit relatives in Minnesota and Maine.

More people get more news from newspapers than all other sources combined.

NOW ATTENDING Boys' State at East Lansing is Glenn Theoret, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Theoret of Gladstone Rte. 1, a delegate sponsored by Cloverland Post No. 82 of the American Legion, Escanaba. Glenn is a junior at Holy Name High School. Boys' State, an experience in citizenship and government, will continue to June 19.

Karras Remains Rozelle Critic

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—Alex Karras of the Detroit Lions continued his criticism of professional football commissioner Pete Rozelle Tuesday, saying Rozelle "is making a mountain out of a molehill" in the Joe Namath case.

"I'm wholeheartedly with Namath," Karras said. "Anybody who lives in America should be able to do what he wants to do. This I've always believed."

Karras was in Beaumont for a charity golf tournament. He said, "people should not dictate to people. If someone commits a crime then put him in jail. If it isn't a crime then leave him alone. After all, Namath was running a public place in New York. It's a bar open to the public."

"Rozelle knows very well that Joe can't stand out front and let some customers come in but turn others away. If you're open to the public, not just a part of it. You know most pro football players are college boys. "We're not illiterate. We know right from wrong. The commissioner just doesn't give us enough credit for intelligence." Karras was suspended once for a year by Rozelle.

Tigers Sign Draft Choices

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers have announced the signing of their No. 2 and No. 8 draft choices in the recent free agent draft, plus the signing of two free agents.

Detroit signed 21-year-old Michigan State catcher Harry Kendrick, their second choice in the draft which was held in New York last week. Also signing was their eighth pick, James Smith. Smith is a 22-year-old righthand pitcher recently graduated from the University of Connecticut.

Richard Holliday of Erie, Pa., and Ronald Thomas of Kingston, N. Y. were also signed. Both free agents are 22-year-old righthanded pitchers. Holliday is a graduate of Westminster College and Thomas of Wagner College.

Twins' Chance Out Of Action

ST. PAUL—MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Dean Chance, ace right-hander for the Minnesota Twins who was placed on the disabled list Sunday, is suffering from "adhesive capsulitis" in his right shoulder and may be lost to the team for as long as six weeks.

Dr. Harvey O'Phelan, who made the diagnosis Monday, described Chance's troubles as an inflammation of the shoulder joint. There is no muscle tear.

Stock Market In Decline

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market declined early this afternoon in continued reaction to a suggestion that wage and price controls might be invoked if the slump isn't extended.

The slump got under way late Tuesday after Treasury Secretary Kennedy hinted that such action was a possibility if Congress doesn't continue the tax.

The market also was laboring under the pressure generated by the increase in the bank prime rate Monday.

At noon the Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was off 6.98 at 905.51.

The Associated Press 60-stock average at noon had dropped 2.5 to 322.0 with industrials off 2.6.

The loss was wide-ranging with declines of individual issues holding a margin of 4 to 1 over advances on the New York Stock Exchange.

Steels, motors, aircrafts, non-ferrous metals, chemicals, rails and oils declined.

Losses ranged from fractions to 2 points or so.

Trading was fairly active with more than 5 million shares changing hands on the Big Board during the first two hours.

Judges Denied Off-Bench Fees

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Judicial Conference has cracked down on the side jobs of federal judges—but not Supreme Court justices—by forbidding them to accept payment for off-bench activities.

However, the conference decided Tuesday, the judges can continue to accept expense money. And, if they get a green light from their fellow judges, they can take pay for services "in the public interest."

Chief Justice Earl Warren called the conference together following the resignation of Abe Fortas from the Supreme Court because of his relations with the Wolfson Family Foundation.

The conference was commonly expected to rein in the justices as well as the other federal judges. But officials told reporters after the 25-judge group broke up that it had no authority over justices.

As the policymaking conference met, with Warren presiding, it was learned Justice William J. Brennan Jr. had quit his teaching post at a summer seminar for judges.

Apollo 10 Crew Thanks Workers

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Standing in the cavernous building where their Saturn 5 rocket was assembled, the Apollo 10 astronauts today thanked the thousands of space workers who successfully launched them toward the moon last month.

"We couldn't have done it without you," Navy Cmdr. Eugene A. Cernan told 10,000 cheering men and women who jammed the center of the 52-story building.

"We're being honored for the success," he added. "But it was really the success of what you people did for us."

"We had faith in the booster and the spacecraft," Air Force Col. Thomas P. Stafford said. "We had faith in you people who worked so hard and so long to make the hardware work all the way out and all the way back. We can never thank you enough."

Wings May Lose Goalie In Draft

DETROIT (AP)—The National Hockey League intro-league draft was scheduled to begin today and the Detroit Red Wings could lose goalie Terry Sawchuk, defenseman Paul Popiel or forward Dean Prentice.

Those were the notables who were not among the 16 players the Wings were authorized to protect.

Those protected were: goalies Roy Edwards and Roger Crozier; defencemen Bob Baune, Gary Bergman, Carl Brewer, Kent Douglas, and Ron Harris; and forwards Gordie Howe, Alex Delvecchio, Frank Mahovlich, Wayne Connelly, Pete Stenkowski, Bruce McGregor, Nick Libbitt, Hank Monteth, and newcomer Garry Monahan.

Garry Unger and Ronald LeClerc, who saw considerable action last season, plus Ed Hato-moni who played several games, were among 16 first-year pros not subject to the draft. Only Montreal with 25 first-year pros has more.

Joseph Parent, 705 S. 17th St., Escanaba, is recovering from surgery in room 257, Bel-lin Memorial Hospital, Green Bay.

Dentists Will Hear Famed Psychologist

The Upper Peninsula Dental Society will hear authorities in the profession plus one of America's outstanding psychologists at its 52nd annual meeting opening in Escanaba Thursday.

The House of Ludington is headquarters for the three-day program hosted by the Delta County Dental Society. Registration began this evening and will continue Thursday morning.

Featured speaker will be Dr. George W. Crane, psychologist, author, columnist and lecturer.

He will speak at sessions Friday morning and Friday afternoon and his subjects are "Psychology in Professional Practice" and "Sex Problems in Marriage." Dr. Crane is widely known for his syndicated column and is a member of several professional organizations including the American Medical Association and the American Psychological Association.

At the opening session Thursday morning the dentists will hear Dr. Burton Press of Pittsburgh, Calif., who will discuss "Patients, Personnel, and Positive Thinking."

The Saturday morning session will hear Dr. Robert Thornton, San Jose, Calif., on Endodontic Management of the Immature Root.

The program committee, officers of the Delta County Dental Society, are Dr. Roger Beauchamp, Dr. Edward Kuivinen and Dr. Byron Zeni.

Theme of the conference is "New Goals for '69" and a program of information and relaxation has been arranged. Thursday afternoon includes golf at the Country Club and a beach party in the evening.

Friday's sessions will include lunch at the Ludington and an evening "on the town," followed by Saturday's business meeting of the U.P. Dental Society, golf in the afternoon, and the annual banquet in the evening at the Ludington.

Nation's Biggest Domestic Ill Is Racism: Romney

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—George W. Romney, Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, said Tuesday the nation's "chief domestic ill is racism, black and white."

The problem has been complicated, Romney said in a University of Tennessee commencement speech, by the common metropolitan pattern of "an impoverished inner city surrounded by affluent suburbs."

As a result, the secretary went on, "Americans are increasingly separated into economic and social as well as racial enclaves."

The former Michigan governor said the plight of the inner city poor has been aggravated as industry and business have followed the movement to the suburbs, "removing jobs beyond the reach of those who lack both private and mass transportation."

Romney told a record Tennessee graduating class of 1,500 undergraduate and graduate students that they, and others like them across the country, hold the answer to the problem.

And he outlined for them an eight-point program to help solve the nation's racial and domestic crises:

—"You can oppose every barrier to equal and full citizenship for all."

—"You can esteem others as yourself, regardless of racial, economic and social status, extending to each the basic human dignity that is his right."

—"You can fulfill your citizenship by being active in the political party of your choice."

—"You can work to modernize state and local governments."

—"You can identify critical problems in your own neighborhood, community, or state and become active in existing voluntary organizations dedicated to achieving solutions—or if none exist, you can enlist other concerned citizens in taking joint organized action."

—"You can refuse to take without giving."

—"You can choose a companion to whom you want to be completely true, be a good parent, and provide a home founded on faith in God, America and your fellow men."

Romney also urged the graduates to support the Nixon Administration's policies for fighting inflation.

Wells

Karen Lynn DeCaire, 11, of Wells, returned home last evening from St. Joseph-Lloyd Hospital in Menominee where she had undergone eye surgery.

Paul Revere was a highly skilled silversmith.

Bill Will Compel Arbitration By Police, Firemen

LANSING (AP) — A bill requiring compulsory arbitration of police and fire disputes has squeaked through the Senate by a bare 20-9 margin.

The measure, introduced by Sen. Stanley Novak, D-Detroit, now goes to the House.

Strikes by police and firemen are illegal under current state law. The Senate bill puts teeth into the law, however, by providing for a $500 daily fine against an employees' organization or employer who fails to agree to terms established by an arbitration panel.

Police and firemen also would be required to work while any disputes were reviewed by an arbitration panel.

Campus Disorders

A proposal for a $100 million bond issue for low cost housing and urban renewal won Senate approval, 26-6.

The proposal also needs more

Police Series On Legal Problems

EAST LANSING (AP) — A series of lectures on legal problems likely to puzzle police officers will be videotaped at Michigan State University for showing later this summer.

Top law enforcement officials will meet at MSU June 17-19 to discuss before a camera such items as civil disorders, search and seizure, interrogation, confession and arrest.

The films later will be shown at workshops in eight cities with police from surrounding areas invited.

Regional workshops will be held July 17-18 at Ann Arbor, July 31-Aug. 1 at Benton Harbor; July 7-8 at the Detroit Police Department; July 10-11 at the Detroit-Macomb County departments; July 14-15 at the Detroit-Wayne County departments; July 21-22 at Flint; July 28-29 at Grand Rapids; Aug. 7-8 at Marquette; July 24-25 at Pontiac, and Aug. 4-5 at Traverse City.

than a two-thirds vote on approval in the House before it can be put on the election ballot for a decision by the voters.

Sen. Coleman Young, D-Detroit, sponsor of the measure, has termed it "even more important to the state than the $100 million recreation bond issue."

Sen. L. Harvey Lodge, R-Waterford, won approval of measures aimed at fighting campus and government building disruptions.

One measure, approved 32-0, declares that any persons willfully destroying, injuring or defacing any building owned by the state or its political subdivisions and causing $100 or more damage shall be guilty of a felony.

A measure passed by a 34-0 vote would make any persons hiring the services of a prostitute equally guilty with the prostitute.

Garnishment

Passed 21-13 was a measure that would forbid employers to fire workers because their salaries had been subject to garnishment.

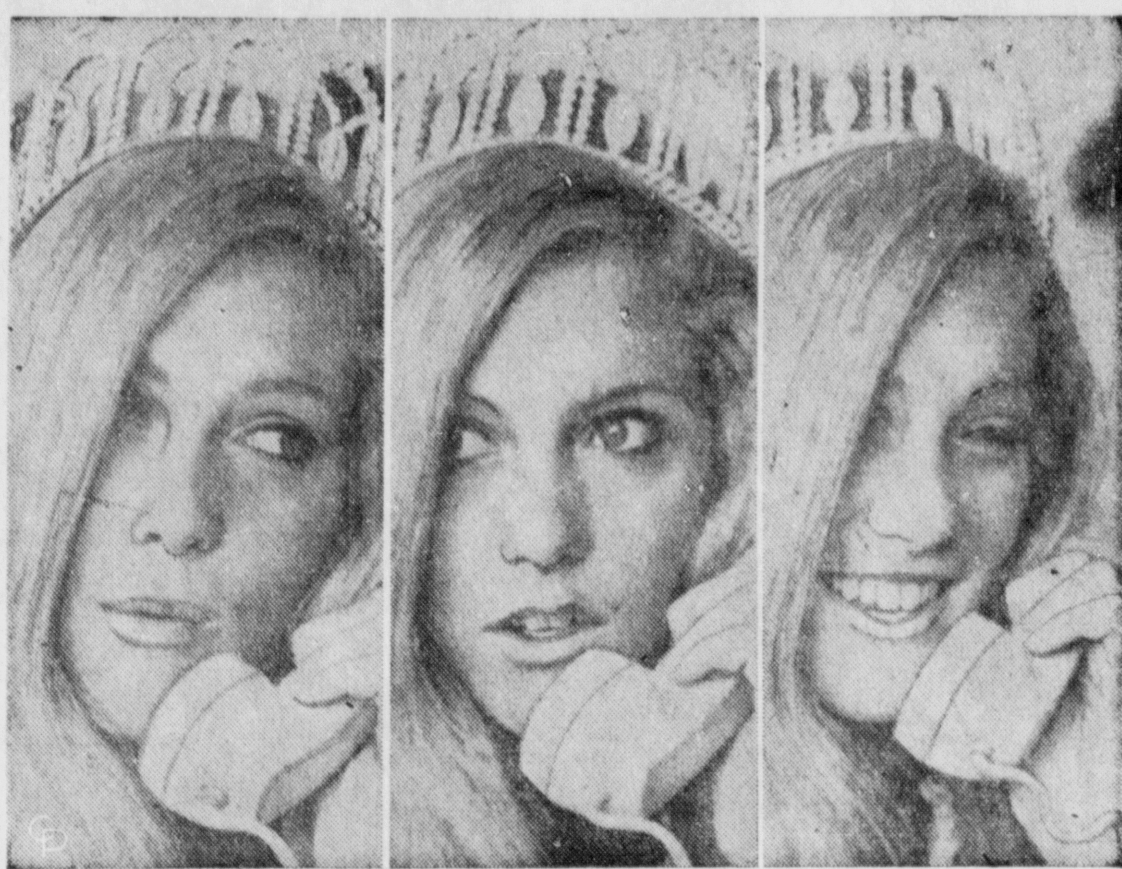

A clause in state law saying any person who solicited alms could not be eligible for aid to the blind was removed by a bill passed 29-0.

Earlier Tuesday, the Senate passed a measure giving Detroit nine regional school districts and boards, despite a warning it might cost the city and state more money.

After considerable debate, the Senate passed by a narrow 21-15 vote a measure aimed at reducing the responsibility of bar owners for damages done to a third party by an intoxicated customer.

The bill provides the owner of a licensed liquor establishment shall not be liable for damages done to a third party off the premises by a customer unless the customer was sold liquor "when visibly intoxicated."

Some senators objected this was almost an impossible fact to determine.

Selling House? What Made You Purchase It?

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures Writer
Selling your house?

To facilitate the sale, call on your memory.

What was it that made you buy the house in the first place? The neighborhood? The nearness of schools and shopping facilities? The size and placement of the rooms? The generous closet space? The general all-around appearance of cleanliness?

Write down all the good points. Whether you're attempting to sell the house yourself or are using the services of a real estate agent, the list will come in handy. Be sure to include on it the answers to all questions that are likely to be asked—the same questions you asked when you were looking over possible purchases, among them such things as taxes, utility costs, transportation, etc.

When you don't have a ready reply to a query and make a hesitant, fumbling answer, people are inclined to think you're trying to hide something. Better to let them know immediately, for instance, that the taxes are such-and-such an amount, even if they are high, than to have the figures crop up unpleasantly later on in the discussion.

When you looked at the house with the intention of buying, you may have tested the flow of water from the sink and tub, checked the ease with which closet doors opened and closed, looked for signs of peeling paint or wallpaper. Others will do the same; therefore, make sure they will find things in proper shape. A small amount spent on repairs can save a sale that otherwise might be lost.

Ever mentally rejected a house before you even went in it because the outside had a seedy appearance? So will others. If the outside of the house needs a painting, do it or have it done. When figuring the profit of a sale, you are permitted to take into account the amount spent for the paint job provided it was done for the specific purpose of furthering the transaction.

(You can get Andy Lang's helpful booklet, "Paint Your House Inside And Out," by sending 25 cents and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to Know-How, P.O. Box 477, Huntington, N. Y. 11743.)

Blacks Start Sheriff's Recall

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A group of Ann Arbor blacks announced Tuesday they are starting a recall campaign against Washenaw County Sheriff Douglas J. Harvey.

Charging that Harvey spends his time harassing the black community rather than solving murders, the group must now collect 15,000 signatures to force a recall vote.

A young girl was found sexually assaulted, and murdered Monday, the sixth in the area in two years. There have been no arrests in any of the slayings.

Harvey has been the center of racial controversy for a few years now. Just two weeks ago he hired an Ann Arbor city policeman who resigned during a controversy in which he was charged with abusing a Negro at a bar.

The Negro was a member of the city's Human Relations Commission investigating charges of discrimination in the bar when he was arrested.

Harvey also faced a strong challenge last year in the election for county sheriff. He managed a bare majority in the Democratic primary over two other candidates and then went on to defeat the Republican and an independent, Joe Lewis, who had run in the Democratic primary.

The Republican was the same man he beat for the job four years earlier amidst charges of corruption in the sheriff's office.

Lewis, a Negro from Ypsilanti, garnered 15 per cent of the vote, far above expectations. He was supported by insurgent Democrats.

GLADSTONE Scholarship Won By Miss Mineau

Miss Carla Mineau, honor graduate of Holy Name High School Class of 1969 and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Mineau of 1702 Dakota Ave., Gladstone, is the recipient of the $1,000 International Brotherhood of Pulp & Sulphite Workers, AFL-CIO.

She was notified of the award today by Everett Robinson, secretary, Local 110 of the International Brotherhood of Pulp & Sulphite Workers.

Miss Mineau will attend Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant. She was also the recipient of the Michigan Higher Education scholarship, announced at the time of her graduation from Holy Name.

Carla Mineau

She is one of 15 sons and daughters of members of the International Brotherhood who will receive the John P. Burke Scholarship. The notifications of awards came from International President Joseph P. Tonelli, Fort Edward, N.Y. Applications for the awards were received from more than 1,000 contestants in the United States and Canada.

The awards are in memory of John P. Burke, who for nearly a half-century headed the International Brotherhood. The $1,000 scholarships which may be used at any college or university went to 11 young persons in this country and four in Canada.

The winners are selected on the basis of scholastic achievement from among the sons and daughters of members in good standing with their respective unions.

TREASURES FOUND
LONDON (AP) — The area of Sussex, south of London, constantly reveals archaeological treasures. Recently the Sussex Archaeological Society found the remains of a pagan Saxon village, and workmen building a hospital came upon evidence of a Roman temple and civic forum at Chichester.

Mrs. John Barbarotto Jr. (Lees' Studio)

Marlene Nelsen Bride Of J. Barbarotto Jr.

St. Patrick's Church in Escanaba was the setting Saturday, May 31 for the wedding of Marlene A. Nelsen of Escanaba and Dr. John A. Barbarotto Jr. of Elmhurst, Ill.

The Rev. Charles Carmody officiated at the double ring nuptials at 1:30 p.m. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Nelsen of 1314 First Ave. S. and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John A. Barbarotto Sr. of Pine Bluff, Ark.

Honor Attendants

Honor attendants for the couple were Mae M. Nelsen, sister of the bride and Victor K. Blomstrom of Saginaw. Seating the guests were Marvin Lueneburg and Richard Lundin. Barbara Babiarz of Chicago, a cousin of the bride, was the flower girl.

Lace, Organza

For her wedding the bride chose a white floor length gown of lace and organza fashioned with a scalloped Sabrina neckline trimmed with seed pearls and French sequins, long lace sleeves and a chapel train also bordered in lace.

A handmade headpiece of pearl petals secured her bouffant veil of nylon illusion and she carried a carnation bouquet.

The honor attendant was attired in a pale yellow lace gown which was banded and bowed in matching satin.

Mrs. Nelsen wore for her daughter's wedding a cream colored dress and coat ensemble and was presented a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Layman's Sunday Scheduled At Calvary Baptist

Calvary Baptist Church, across from the Fair Grounds, will observe Layman's Sunday on June 15. The Sunday Bible School is held at 9:45 a.m. and is conducted by lay people.

The morning worship service is held at 11 a.m., and will be led by laymen of the church. Carl Frans of Cornell will preach the sermon.

The evening gospel service will be held at 7 p.m., and will also include lay participation in the form of a special half hour musical program by the Gospel Songfest Quartet and the Trio of Deacons.

Evans Lutz of Wells, Marvin Mylander and Eugene Slagstad, both of Escanaba, will preach on a missionary theme. The public is invited to attend these services.

PRICE OF PALACES

LONDON (AP)—It will cost more than 1 million pounds ($2.4 million) to maintain Britain's royal palaces in 1969-70, the Ministry of Public Building has announced.

That includes such items at Buckingham Palace as 12,000 pounds ($28,800) for a new elevator and 5,000 pounds ($12,000) to clean the chandeliers.

JOAN AND SUSAN MCNAB, 15, and 16, of St. Louis, Mo., from identical operations for identical bone protrusions. Each leg now bears a six-pound cast which they'll have on for about six weeks. Both recently graduated from Immaculate Heart of Mary grade school. (AP Wire-photo)

MANISTIQUE

Rep. Varnum To Deliver Commencement Address

Graduation Week activities got underway for 151 seniors of the Manistique High School with a Baccalaureate Service Sunday night in the high school auditorium.

The graduates, gowned in green caps and gowns, marched into the auditorium to Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance." The high school instrumental group, under the direction of Gary Lester, played for the occasion.

Rev. William Brauer, pastor of the Church of the Redeemer, Presbyterian, offered the invocation, a scripture reading and prayer.

The Baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Rev. Theodore Doane of the First United Methodist Church.

Miss Arlene Gordanier, vocal music supervisor, sang "On God of Youth" with piano accompaniment by Mary Beth Waters.

The traditional Class Night will be held tonight at 7:30 in the high school auditorium.

Addresses will be given by Marvin Miller, valedictorian, and Mary Beth Waters, salutatorian. Class president, David Rood Jr. will give the "Green and White" and also present the class gift.

The Class History will be delivered by Merry Jo DeSautel, Kathy Main, Mary Cameron, Marcia Hubble, Sheryl Kanerva, Mindy Orr, Diane Pace, Toni Rusiecki and Joan Villemure.

The Class Prophecy will be presented by Patrick Creedon, Bill Leveille, Dorothy Adams, Paul Babiadelis, Larry Davidson, Michael Demers, James Frederickson, Russell King, Robert Males, Lynne Williams.

Brenda Webber, Farral Golat, Arlene Jetty, Laura Lockwood, Bonita Moen, Paulette Nelson, Cindy Orlich, Shirley Osterhout and Linda Peterson have prepared the Class Will for presentation.

Pamela Putvin, a senior, will perform a piano solo during Class night festivities.

The class will receive diplomas Thursday night in a Commencement Program beginning at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. Denton Nelson, president of the Area Board of Education, will make the diploma presentation.

Rev. Father Daniel Zaloga, assistant pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church, will offer the invocation.

Rep. Charles H. Varnum of Manistique will deliver the principal address to the graduates. Varnum is a former junior high faculty member.

The MHS Senior Choir will sing "Halls of Ivy" and Miss Gordanier "The Impossible Dream."

Admission to the Commencement Program is by ticket only. The class of 1969 chose Ivy Green and Gold as class colors; Yellow Rose as class flower; and the motto: "Those who look only to the past are certain to miss the future."

Members of the graduating class include:

Chiefs Defeat Negaunee 10-5

The Manistique Chiefs defeated the Negaunee Legion team by a score of 10-5 in a seven inning exhibition game played at Cardinal Field Saturday at 5:30 p. m.

Russ King hit a three bagger for Manistique while Kurt Prond had two singles. Randy Kane and Ken Roberts had one each. King was the winning pitcher, allowing two hits and striking out 12. Kris Johnson came on in the seventh, allowing two hits, and striking out one.

Poutanen took the loss for Negaunee, relieved in the fifth by Warra as they combined to allow only five hits, but gave up nine walks and struck out five. Manistique will play a return game at Negaunee on July 19.

Next game for the Chiefs is scheduled for June 15, when Powers comes to Manistique for a double-header. First game will start at 1 p. m.

Minister Busy Night Policeman

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP) — Many married men have their weekly night out and the Rev. Robert Asmuth is no exception. He spends every Friday night in a police squad car, taking the word of God to the street corners and ministering to the spiritual needs of his police pals.

To these pals, Asmuth is simply "The Rev."

Chaplain to the Fort Myers police force the past five years, Asmuth has become familiar with violence, screams in the night and flashing police lights. Last week was no exception. The squad car radio alerted Asmuth to the trouble, moments later the preacher, billy club in hand, scrambled out of the car. Seconds later he was comforting a man who wept over the body of his slain brother.

Important
"The Rev. joined us originally because policemen can't always attend church on Sunday morning, because we need help with potential suicides and wayward juveniles and because the image of the policeman was steadily declining," said Police Chief Burl Underhill.

"Now, we wouldn't want to be without him. We sometimes tend to lose sight of the fact that we can't leave God out of our plans."

Although he could spend his hours in the First Presbyterian Church where he is pastor, the 39-year-old Asmuth says he prefers to spend every Friday night and many weekday hours riding the city in squad cars, helping policemen with their personal problems and professional duties.

Acceptance
"Policemen work long hours, don't get paid much and often have problems they don't want to talk over with their superiors," the minister said. "So, a lot of times an officer will ask me to ride with him in the squad car for a while to talk. He gets it off his chest, and I'll help with any advice I can give."

He has taken guns out of the hands of cornered suspects and talked potential suicides out of pulling the trigger.

He said his wife accepted his unusual after-hours activities, even though she sometimes feared it could leave three children fatherless.

For the Rev, police work is a way to repay the regular force he considers "underpaid, overworked and unappreciated."

Six To Face Drug Charges

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Six persons, including two young women, today faced circuit court arraignment on narcotics charges as police pressed a search for 20 others wanted in connection with the drug arrests.

The six waived examination Tuesday and were held in lieu of bonds ranging from $3,000 to $20,000.

Arrested Tuesday were: Gene Cross, 18, Kalkaska; Michael O'Hare, 17, Fife Lake; Gary Beach, 20, Southfield; Fred Simmons, 20, Denise Whaley, 18, and Deborah Kennedy, 18, all of Traverse City.

Michigan State Police, Grand Traverse County sheriff's deputies and Traverse City police made the arrests after several months investigation. Grand Traverse Prosecutor John Blake-slee said 20 additional warrants

Demo Cover Up, Says McLaughlin

LANSING (AP)—Democratic criticisms of Gov. William Milliken "are clearly a cover up for their own leadership failures," Republican State Chairman William McLaughlin has contended.

McLaughlin issued a statement in answer to charges by Democratic State Chairman James McNeely that the governor showed only "concern" over problems and supplied no positive leadership.

"I find it ironic that those who now demand more leadership are those who only recently complained about too tight reins from the executive office," said McLaughlin, referring back to former Gov. George Romney.

"It is amusing that those who call for a firm guiding hand are those whose own party leadership in the Legislature is split into a multitude of scrapping factions," McLaughlin said.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to neighbors, friends and relatives and all who helped in many ways to ease our sorrow at the loss of our daughter and sister Darlene Schuetter. Your many acts of kindness will never be forgotten.

Merchants Edge Teamsters Nine

Tony Derkos of the Escanaba Merchants and Bill Groleau of the Teamsters locked up in a pitchers' duel during last night's only Escanaba Softball League contest, but it was Derkos who managed to come out on top as the Merchants were victorious, 3-2.

Derkos allowed two hits, struck out four Teamster batsmen and gave up four walks in picking up the victory while Groleau was tagged for four hits while striking out three and allowing four walks.

The Merchants opened the first inning when Wally Flath walked and went to second on a passed ball. Bill Goodreau advanced Flath to third with a sacrifice fly and Flath later scored on a wild pitch. The wild pitch enabled Bob Coriveau to draw a walk and he later scored on a single by Keith Glusings.

The Merchants scored their third run in the bottom of the third inning when Flath walked, went to third on an error and scored on a sacrifice fly by Coriveau.

The Teamsters scored their only two runs in the top half of the sixth inning when Joe Hebert singled, Ed Gauthier walked and Bob Stepih was safe on a fielders choice retiring Gauthier at second. Stepih and Hebert both scored on fielders choices following two close plays at the plate.

The victory gave the Merchants a perfect 3-0 record for the season and left them tied with Flat Rock for first place in the Escanaba Softball League standings.

Games tonight will pit Strohs Beer against Flat Rock at 6:30 and the Teamsters against Trenary at 8.

The Merchants are scheduled to leave for Little Mike's Saturday, June 14, at 4:30 for a game with the Marquette Prison All-Stars. Game time at Marquette will be 6 p.m.

Dave Friets Paces League

Dave Friets was the only golfer who was able to match par during Twilight League play at the Highland Golf Club Tuesday evening, turning in an even 36 to go with his front nine round of 41.

Other low scores turned in during league play were 37's by Jack Smith and Jerry Martin, 39's by Mel Manske, Abe Milkovich and Con Pratt, 40's by Pinky Burnell and Jerry Sunquist and 41's by Bob Lodeen, Wayne Cooper, Bob Heymen, Al Davidson and Ward Steimert.

The league lead changed hands again as Smitty's Snackers jumped from third to first, while Doug's Dubbers dropped back into the second spot, a full two points back of the leaders. The W. R.'s also moved up to third place, tied with Con's Clubbers, four points off the pace.

Golf pair winners were Don Meunier, Jerry Martin, Don LaCasse, Carl Freits, Jack Beauchamp, Earl Delforge and Adolph Johnson.

Team standings: Smitty's Snackers 32½; Doug's Dubbers 30½; W. R.'s and Con's Clubbers 28½; Pussyfoots 27½; Mel's Medicare 27; Barney's Beavers 25; Bogey Men 24½; Has Beens 24; Mor-Strokes 22½; Jerry's Jets 22; Free Swingers 21; Wertz's Watusis 18½; Dave's Demons 17½; Pinky's Putters and Ding-A-Lings 16.

The Holy Name Booster Club will meet Thursday, June 12, in the school library at 8 p. m. All members are urged to attend the meeting.

Meyers Shoots Ace In League

Lee Meyers achieved a golfer's dream last night in league play at the Escanaba Country Club when he ached the 122-yard No. 3 hole with an 8-iron while playing with Dr. G. H. Bast and Jim Hirn. Meyers finished his round with a 41.

Jim Hirn and Dave Erickson recorded the low scores in league play, each carding a 38. Other low scorers were Tim LeMire 39, Bob Turner and Ken Turner 40, Don Scott, Bill Eis Sr., Dexter Babcock, Jim Moore, Don Goulais, Ollie Christianson, Al Taylor and Ed Gravelle 41's.

In Best Ball play, Jim Hirn and Dr. John LeMire teamed up to tie Ed Gravelle and Ollie Christianson for top honors. Each team turned in a net 32 score. Eight other teams were tied for second place honors with 33's. Dexter Babcock was closest to the pin on No. 7.

Team standings: Big O's 33; Ice Boxes 24; Team No. 2, No. 10's, and Pixies 22; Team No. 10 and Team No. 17 21½; Hush Puppies and Tornado's 21; Pea Soups 20; Finishers 19½; Green Berets 17; Chown's Clowns 16; Team No. 11 15½; Gravel Gerties 14; Team No. 4 11½; Acers 10 and Has Beens 8½.

Bankers Trip Kiwanis, 7-1

The Bankers exploded for three runs in the first inning in their Babe Ruth League game with Kiwanis Tuesday evening and went on to notch a 7-1 victory, their first of the season.

Mark Irving got strong relief help from Richard Miketinae to pick up the victory on the hill for the Bankers. Miketinae relieved Irving in the fourth inning and struck out seven of the next seventeen batters he faced, including three in both the fifth and seventh innings.

Jim Joran was charged with the defeat for Kiwanis. He struck out eight Banker batsmen.

Hitting stars in the game for the Bankers were Noel Gannon, Kelly O'Connell, Steve Sharkey and Phil Dumais, all of whom delivered key blows. Mark Richards and Jim Nevella each had two hits for Kiwanis.

Tonight's Babe Ruth League contest will pit UAW-CIO and Insurance at the league field beginning at 6.

Bengals Shutout Seattle; Wilson Registers Victory

DETROIT (AP) — Norm Cash, a big yellow spot, so I had to rub my eyes so I could see."

He responded with a double off Pilots starter and loser Fred Talbot, 1-1. Then in the sixth he teed off reliever Bob Locker for a solo home run, his 10th of the season and sixth in the last 11 games. Cash cleared another double in the two-run Tiger eighth.

Detroit took a 2-0 lead in the fifth after rightfielder Mike Hegan dropped Tom Matchick's line drive for an error. One run scored on Mickey Stanley's ground out and the other came home on a single by Al Kaline. Cash led off the eighth with a double, Jim Northrup walked,

The husky, ex-Marine wore a bright yellow shirt, bright yellow pants, bright yellow socks, and bright yellow alligator shoes. "Watcha goin' tonight?" teased one of his teammates as Wilson walked from the room.

Cash saw yellow too. But that was in the second inning just before he went up to bat. Plate umpire Bob Stewart complained that Cash should have been ready after Gates Brown struck out, but Cash was in the dugout.

"When I was in the on-deck circle I looked into the stands and some boy flashed his camera just as I looked at him," Cash said. "All I could see was then Price singled home Cash. After Stanley walked to fill the bases Dick McAuliffe walked to force in the last run.

Denny McLain, 9-5, was scheduled to go after his 100th victory tonight against Mike Marshall, 3-7, of the Pilots. A win would make McLain the only active pitcher to win 100 games before his 26th birthday. He is 25.

Powell Keeping Oriole Pennant Chances Alive

By The Associated Press
Frank Robinson's two good eyes helped put the Baltimore Orioles on top of the American League's East Division, and Boog Powell's bad hip is helping keep them there.

Robinson, fully recovered from an eye injury he suffered two seasons ago, went on a record 10-homer spree in April that helped vault the Orioles into the East lead, and although he has slacked off somewhat recently, other Orioles, particularly Powell, have taken over.

Powell, on the other hand, hadn't been doing much until he hurt his hip a few weeks ago.

Since then he's been on a streak that continued Tuesday night when he drove in three runs with a homer in the Orioles' 11-4 victory over California.

In other American League games, Kansas City edged the New York Yankees 7-6, Oakland trimmed Washington 6-4, Detroit blanked Seattle 5-0, Minnesota defeated Boston 6-2 and the Chicago White Sox stopped Cleveland 9-5.

Powell's streak covers the last 26 games. In that stretch, he has driven in 32 runs and batted .327, hitting safely in all but one of the games. That's brought his over-all record to 47 runs batted in and a .302 average.

Against the Angels, Powell had help from Paul Blair, who himself has a streak going. In the past four games, the center fielder has knocked in 10 runs. That includes the four he got Tuesday night with two doubles and a single.

The Yankees rallied to within one run on Kansas City in the ninth inning but Dave Wicksham came in with two on and none out and retired the next three batters. Lou Piniella drove in four runs for Kansas City while Roy White did the same for New York.

Reggie Jackson led Oakland past Washington, driving in the tying run with a seventh-inning

Hermansville 9's Split On Weekend

The Hermansville Babe Ruth team won its fourth game of the season, but the Little Leaguers weren't so lucky as they suffered their second defeat.

The Babe Ruthers traveled to Kingsford on Friday night and came home with a 14-1 victory behind the two-hit pitching of Tim Faccio, who went all the way on the mound to pick up the victory. Dave Malone had three hits for Hermansville while Faccio and Lyle Schoen picked up two.

Norway Moose handed the Little League nine a 5-3 defeat at the Hermansville diamond on Saturday night. Tom Maule led Hermansville at the plate with two hits and also suffered the defeat on the mound, allowing nine hits in going all the distance.

Unbelievable Mets Notch 11th Consecutive Victory

By The Associated Press
For the first time in their celebrated eight-year history, the New York Mets are truly Amazing... except to themselves.

Gil Hodges' grown-up expansion urchins, sparked by a repatriated pitcher and a rejuvenated slugger, socked the San Francisco Giants 9-4 Tuesday night for their 11th consecutive victory... longest winning streak in the majors this season.

Tommie Agee cracked four hits, including a pair of homers, and Don Cardwell hurled eight brilliant innings before tiring as the Mets shot six games over the once-elusive .500 mark and solidified their hold on second place in the National League East.

Agee Sparkles
Agee, the fleet center fielder whose home run total slipped from 22 in 1966, when he was the American League's Rookie of the Year at Chicago, to 14 in 1967 with the White Sox and five last season with the Mets, drove in three runs with his eighth and ninth homers and one of his two singles.

Cardwell, called off bullpen duty for his first start since May 15, checked the Giants on two hits until the ninth, when he needed relief help from Ron Taylor, and earned his first victory in more than a month.

New York remained seven games behind the front-running Chicago Cubs, who overtook Atlanta 3-1 behind Ken Holtzman's pitching and home runs by Willie Smith and Ron Santo. Los Angeles climbed within one game of the West Division leading Braves with a 2-1 nod over sliding Philadelphia; Houston downed Pittsburgh 7-4; St. Louis shaded Cincinnati 5-4 and Montreal topped San Diego 7-4 in other NL action.

"Old Mets Dead"
"The old Mets are dead, baby!" Agee beamed after boosting his batting average 18 points to .278 with four hits in five trips to the plate against loser Mike McCormick and two successors. He has driven in 26 runs, nine more than his total for the 1968 season, when he batted just .217.

"Hodges has done a magnificent job with this club...better than anyone else," said Cardwell, 33-year-old dean of New York's fuzzy-checked pitching staff, who contributed three singles and a sacrifice fly to the Mets' 12-hit attack and brought his season pitching mark to 2-6.

The strapping right-hander, backed by Agee's slugging and a three-run homer by Cleon Jones, took a 9-1 lead into the ninth. Then, Willie McCovey blasted his 20th homer, stretching a hitting streak to 15 games, and Jack Hiatt poked a two-run homer. Taylor came on to get the last two outs and cement Cardwell's first triumph since May 6.

Cubs Rally
The Cubs trailed right-hander Ron Reed 1-0 in the eighth inning at Atlanta when Smith smacked a pinch hit homer and Santo unloaded his 10th circuit of the season after an error by Orlando Cepeda.

Holtzman, who has lost only once, became the majors' first 10-game winner with ninth inning help from Phil Regan as the Cubs nailed their eighth victory in the last nine games. Ted Sizemore lashed a bases-

Bay College Cager On European Jaunt

This hardly seems the time of the year for basketball to be in the headlines, but a 13-man United States All-Star team arrived in Czechoslovakia this past Saturday to begin a 20-day tour which includes games with Czech teams.

Included on the 13-man roster is Doug Benson, a sophomore at Bay de Noc Community College, who is a forward on the team. Benson averaged 10 points and 12 rebounds a game this past season in Bay de Noc's debut on the intercollegiate basketball scene. He scored 17 points against the great Slavia Prague in their appearance in Escanaba and is rated by the all star team coaches as a strong and rugged rebounder.

The United States team arrived in Prague Saturday afternoon and was welcomed with a late afternoon reception at the Slavia Prague Clubhouse. The team left for Kosice Saturday night and held a practice on Sunday in preparation for a game with Eastern Slovakia in Kosice Monday evening.

The team will play a nine-game schedule while in Czechoslovakia, including three games against the same Slavia Prague team which traveled throughout the United States this past season and which 12 of the players on the 13-man roster had the privilege to play against.

The all stars will leave Prague on Thursday, June 26, and arrive in Paris the same day. They are scheduled to be back in the United States the following day, June 27.

All players on the team were selected by Duane A. Woltzen, head coach of the all-star team and basketball coach at Lakeland College in Sheboygan, Wis. Woltzen, 35, has compiled an amazing 109-25 record in five years at Lakeland. His teams have won five consecutive Gateway Conference championships and currently possess a 40-game winning streak. He has developed four all-American players in his day at the small Wisconsin school.

Woltzen will be assisted on the Czechoslovakian tour by Kenneth Wigen, athletic director and basketball coach at St. Mary's College, Winona, Minn., and Loren Tiede, dean of students and head baseball coach at Lakeland College.

In addition to Benson, other players on the all-star team are Mike Hughes of Wisconsin State University (Stevens Point); Waymon Stewart of Lakeland College; Ken VerGowe of Wisconsin State University; Jack Gebler of St. Norbert College (West DePere, Wis.); Jesse Price of Millikan University (Decatur, Ill.); Dave Poll of Northern Montana College (Havre, Mont.); Howard Wilkins of Lee College (Albert Lee, Minn.); Dan Retzer of Eastern Montana University (Billings, Mont.); Bob Soucek of St. Mary's College; Nick Perrine of Parkside University (Kenosha, Wis.); Virgil Algee of Mount St. Paul College (Waukesha, Wis.) and Bob Guy of Lakeland College.

Alou Suffers Severe Injury

HOUSTON (AP) — Left fielder Jesus Alou of Houston suffered a severe concussion Tuesday night when he collided with shortstop Hector Torres, chasing a fly ball in a game between the Astros and the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Torres was injured but he was not believed to be in serious condition.

Quick first aid given Alou by Pittsburgh trainer Tony Bartirome may have saved the outfielder's life.

Both Alou and Torres were taken from the field on stretchers and rushed to Methodist Hospital.

Bartirome ran to the stricken Alou and immediately noticed that Alou had swallowed his tongue.

Bartirome pulled out the tongue and to prevent a recurrence he inserted a rubber hose and inflated it.

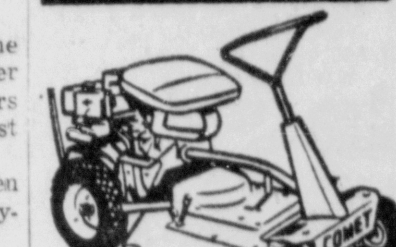

This forced air into the body and reopened Alou's throat, restoring a normal flow of air into the lungs.

Torres became conscious before leaving the stadium but Alou did not regain consciousness until he was in the ambulance.

Tests were still being made late Tuesday night to determine the full extent of injuries to the two players. The hospital said Alou was lapsing in and out of consciousness.

Torres, according to the hospital, suffered cuts above the nose and on the chin. It was believed Torres' injuries were not as serious as first feared.
